2023 Silicon Valley Jewish Film Festival

SILICON VALLEY, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2023 Silicon

Valley Jewish Film Festival (SVJFF) features an impressive slate of 30 films from around the world.

“

We are excited to offer audiences a wide array of 30 critically acclaimed films at this year’s festival. From documentaries to dramas and comedies, there is something for everyone.”

Tzvia Shelef, SVJFF Executive Director

The festival will feature four special in-theatre movie events at Icon in Mountain View and the Oshman Family JCC in Palo Alto. Also featured are dozens of virtual movie screenings on the Eventive platform, available for viewing 72 hours from the first scheduled screening.

“We are excited to offer audiences a wide array of 30 critically acclaimed films at this year’s festival,” said Tzvia Shelef, SVJFF Executive Director. “From documentaries to dramas and comedy, there is something for everyone, including my own personal favorites, the opening night film “Remembering Gene Wilder” and the closing night film

“Bella!”. We are also fortunate to showcase a number of post-film programs with producers, directors, and other film talent.”
